Happy March Church!
We're wrapping up February, finishing up Week of Compassion, and entering into the season of Lent. Lent is a time of repentance and preparation for the resurrection, and to that end, we will add a communal confession and assurance of pardon to the weekly service. This is not a time of guilt or shame, but a chance to confess personally and be assured of your pardon and celebrate the grace of resurrection. Nothing else will really change in the month of lent except I'll send out a weekly devotional, and I'll encourage you this year to take something on if that's what you need in your spiritual walk. Some examples of things to take on are to add a spiritual practice daily, say one thing you are grateful for daily, or go out of your comfort zone weekly to help or serve someone else. If you think giving something up is what you need, I encourage you to think on how this will bring you closer to God, which is the point of this season.

Youth group will be beginning a new lesson series through the end of the year, an exploration of who God is and what that means to us. Cody's young adult class is bringing current events to discuss, and doing so through the lens of faith. Sunday morning Bible study is wrapping up 1 Kings, and will begin the first Sunday in March on a slow walk through the book of Philippians. I hope you will reach out and attend one of these exciting learning opportunities.

Blessings, Pastor Zane

*May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
The rains fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.*
